

The following list of Jews residing in Preveza who were deported to Auschwitz-Birkenau in the Spring of 1944, was initially gathered from the "Book of Memory" published in Greece by the Central Board of Jewish Communities in the 1979. Information has been supplemented by personal interviews with survivors and Yad Vashem's Hall of names. Through cross-referencing, we can also include the information of those who were born in Ioannina, and the names of those who were born elsewhere in Greece but were deported from Preveza.

In addition, we list names of those who were born in Preveza but were deported from elsewhere in Greece. All of this reflects the complicated pre-Holocaust situation in Greece; the movement of Jews in search of economic opportunities, as many moved to the capital city. Then, of course, there was the frantic search for safe havens during the Occupation of Greece that led some Jews to leave their native cities and seek hiding elsewhere where they were less well known and less likely to be denounced by collaborators. Taking all of this into consideration, we have tried, to the best of our ability, to be as accurate as is possible. According to the registers of Preveza, the Jewish population in 1940 was 240.

The Jews of Preveza were rounded up on March 25, 1944. They would arrive at Auschwitz-Birkenau on April 11, 1944. Most would be sent immediately to the gas chambers.

For additional information on the Jewish community of Preveza, see the article on this website (in archives): The Jews of Preveza by George Moustaki, Chronika: January/February 2005: issue 195. Translated by Marcia Haddad Ikononopoulos and, of course, our previous exhibit on "The Jewish Community of Preveza" on our website under "Previous Exhibits."

In Memory of the Jewish Community of Preveza
May their names all be inscribed for eternity.
